1. On 19 October 2021, Trial Chamber I (the ‘Chamber’) issued a decision on victims’ participation and representation in trial proceedings (the ‘Decision on Victims’ Participation’),¹ in which it adopted Pre-Trial Chamber II’s victim application process (the ‘ABC Approach’) and appointed a team of Common Legal Representatives for Victims (the ‘CLRV’).
2. On 12 November 2021, upon a Defence request, the Chamber issued an oral decision confirming the use of the ABC Approach.²
3. Between 14 January 2022 and 6 May 2024, the Chamber issued ten decisions authorising the participation of a total of 1331 victims in the trial proceedings.³
4. On 23 July 2024, the Registry transmitted 127 victims’ applications from Group A,⁴ as well as an accompanying assessment report.⁵

Applicable law

5. The Chamber incorporates by reference the general legal framework applicable to the assessment of victims’ applications.⁶

⁴ Eleventh Registry Transmission of Group A Applications for Victim Participation in Trial Proceedings, 23 July 2024, ICC-02/05-01/20-1164, with 127 confidential ex parte annexes.

⁵ Eleventh Registry Assessment Report on Victim Applications for Participation in Trial Proceedings, ICC-02/05-01/20-1163, with a confidential annex. None of the parties or participants responded to the Registry’s Report.

⁶ First Decision on Admission of Victims, ICC-02/05-01/20-556, para. 4.

Group A applications

6. The Registry has transmitted 127 new applications which meet the criteria for inclusion in Group A. The Chamber accepts this assessment as they meet the required conditions for granting victim status under the test set out in Rule 85(a) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. The Chamber has not identified any clear, material error in the Registry's assessment and therefore authorises their participation as victims.

7. A list of victims hereby admitted to participate in the present trial proceedings is annexed to the present decision.

Legal representation

8. In line with the legal representation system already in place, the CLRV will represent the newly admitted victims.⁷

For these reasons, the Chamber:

- i. Authorises the 127 new applicants identified in the annex to participate as victims in the trial proceedings; and
- ii. Decides that the CLRV will represent the 127 newly admitted victims hereby authorised to participate in the proceedings henceforth.
