1. On 19 October 2021, Trial Chamber I (the ‘Chamber’) issued a decision on victims’ participation and representation in trial proceedings (the ‘Decision on Victims’ Participation’),¹ in which it adopted Pre-Trial Chamber II’s victim application process (the ‘ABC Approach’) and appointed a team of Common Legal Representatives for Victims (the ‘CLRV’).
2. On 12 November 2021, upon a Defence request, the Chamber issued an oral decision confirming the use of the ABC Approach.²
3. Between 14 January 2022 and 25 October 2024, the Chamber issued 12 decisions authorising the participation of a total of 1587 victims in the trial proceedings.³
4. Following the transmission of 129 victims application with an accompanying assessment report on 17 October 2024,⁴ the Registry sent an email on 22 October 2024 informing the Chamber that: i) it had erroneously included in its transmission one application which it had assessed as falling outside the scope of the case or requiring additional information; and ii) omitted to include seven further applications it had assessed as falling within Group A.⁵

5. On 23 October 2024, the Chamber issued the Twelfth decision on the admission of victims to participate in trial proceedings, in which it admitted 129 victims and authorised the Registry to transmit the additional seven applications for participation assessed as falling under Group A.⁶

6. On 25 October 2024, the Registry transmitted seven victims' applications from Group A,⁷ as well as an accompanying assessment report (the 'Report').⁸

7. Considering the current stage of the proceedings, the Chamber finds it appropriate to issue the present decision without receiving any responses.⁹

Applicable law

8. The Chamber incorporates by reference the general legal framework applicable to the assessment of victims' applications.¹⁰

Group A applications

9. The Registry has transmitted seven new applications which meet the criteria for inclusion in Group A. The Chamber accepts this assessment as they meet the required conditions for granting victim status under the test set out in Rule 85(a) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. The Chamber has not identified any clear, material error in the Registry's assessment and therefore authorises their participation as victims.

10. A list of victims hereby admitted to participate in the present trial proceedings is annexed to the present decision.

⁸ Thirteenth Registry Assessment Report on Victim Applications for Participation in Trial Proceedings, ICC-02/05-01/20-1199, with a confidential annex.

⁹ See also Email from the CLRV, 18 October 2024, at 12:01, requesting the Chamber to issue its decision on the status of the newly transmitted applications as soon as possible to allow them 'to include some information and views and concerns raised by the applicants in the [f]inal [b]rief and during closing arguments'.

¹⁰ First Decision on Admission of Victims, ICC-02/05-01/20-556, para. 4.

Legal representation

11. In line with the legal representation system already in place, the CLRV will represent the newly admitted victims.¹¹

For these reasons, the Chamber:

- i. Authorises the seven new applicants identified in the annex to participate as victims in the trial proceedings; and
- ii. Decides that the CLRV will represent the seven newly admitted victims hereby authorised to participate in the proceedings henceforth;

Judge Joanna Korner

Presiding Judge

Judge Reine Alapini-Gansou
