1. i-ACT respectfully requests leave to attend the reparations hearing scheduled for 8 September 2026.
2. On 11 February 2026, this Chamber granted i-ACT leave to participate in the reparations proceedings in this case as an amicus curiae. The Chamber also granted similar requests from several other organizations.¹
3. On 2 April 2026, this Chamber issued a decision in which it inter alia scheduled a hearing on reparations matters for 8 September 2026. In its decision, the Chamber directed any of the participating amici curiae that wish to attend the hearing to file a request to do so no later than 4 May 2026.²
4. Thus, pursuant to the Chamber's 2 April Decision and Rule 103 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, i-ACT hereby requests leave to attend the reparations hearing in this case. If leave is granted, consistent with that Decision i-ACT will be prepared to make brief final observations on reparations and/or address questions posed by the Chamber, at the Chamber's discretion.³
