TRIAL CHAMBER VII (the ‘Chamber’) of the International Criminal Court, in the case of The Prosecutor v. Khaled Mohamed Ali El Hishri, having regard to Article 64(2) and (3) of the Rome Statute (the ‘Statute’), Rule 132(1) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (the ‘Rules’), and Regulations 54 and 81(4)(b) and (c) of the Regulations of the Court, issues this order scheduling the first status conference.

1. To facilitate the preparation of the first status conference and to enable the Chamber to set the trial date in this case, the Chamber seeks submissions from the parties and participants in relation to the following items:

A. Commencement date of the trial.

B. Anticipated evidence. The Chamber addresses this item primarily to the Prosecution. The Defence is not obligated to provide this information at this stage unless it so desires.

(1) Estimated number of witnesses to be called and number of hours of in-court testimony;

(2) Use of expert witnesses;

(3) Testimony given by audio or video link;

(4) Estimated volume of documentary and other non-testimonial evidence to be relied upon at trial; and

(5) Use of Rule 68 of the Rules.

C. Agreed facts under Rule 69 of the Rules.

D. Languages to be used by the parties, participants, and the witnesses whom the parties intend to call.

E. Disclosure of outstanding material in the Prosecution’s possession and related issues:

(1) Whether the Prosecution’s investigations are still ongoing;

- (2) Timing and volume of disclosure of outstanding evidence pursuant to Article 67(2) of the Statute and Rules 76 and 77 of the Rules;
- (3) Transcription and translation issues;
- (4) Protective measures for witnesses (including additional need for redactions, delayed disclosure or referrals to the Court's witness protection programme);
- (5) Disclosure of witnesses' identities which have been withheld from the Defence;
- (6) Disclosure of material obtained pursuant to Article 54(3)(e) of the Statute.

F. Disclosure by the Defence, including whether the Defence intends to advance a defence in accordance with Rules 79 and 80 of the Rules.

G. Provision of trial briefs.

H. Motions requiring resolution prior to the commencement of trial.

I. Update and forecast on (additional) applications by victims to participate in the proceedings and updated report and recommendation on the legal representation of victims.¹

J. Continued application of Protocols adopted during the confirmation of charges proceedings.

2. The Registry is ordered to make submissions on items D., E. (4) and I.

3. Further, the parties and participants may express their wish to add agenda items to the abovementioned list and indicate whether, in their view, any portion(s) of the status conference should be held ex parte.

¹ See Pre-Trial Chamber I, Decision on victims' participation and legal representation, 11 May 2026, ICC-01/11-01/25-117, page 8.

4. The parties and participants are encouraged to liaise and file joint submissions on any of the points indicated above. To the extent possible, the Chamber would welcome a joint proposal for a timeline leading up to the start of trial, including relevant intermediary deadlines.

5. Should the parties and participants know of any matters which may delay the start of the trial or which should be resolved before the status conference, they should promptly bring these to the Chamber's attention.

6. Pursuant to Rule 132(1) of the Rules, the Chamber sets 3 September 2026 as the date of the first status conference. A detailed agenda and sitting schedule will be provided in due course, after receipt of the written submissions.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE CHAMBER HEREBY

CONVENES a status conference on 3 September 2026;

ORDERS the parties and participants to provide submissions as set out above, by 25 August 2026.

Judge Althea Violet Alexis-Windsor

Presiding Judge

Judge Miatta Maria Samba
