On 3 April 2008, the Single Judge requested the Office of the Prosecutor ("Prosecution") to submit observations on Defence's request that the Office of Public Counsel for the Defence have access in real time to the transcripts of public hearings via the LiveNote system.¹ On 7 April, the Registry filed its report on the matter.² On 9 April, the Office of Public Counsel for the Defence ("OPCD") filed its observations.³

The Prosecution takes note of the current practice of the Registry for providing access to real time transcripts of public hearings using the LiveNote system and has no objections in this regard. The Prosecution also takes note of the observations of the OPCD. The Prosecution has no additional observations to submit.
