Other

1. The Prosecution hereby submits its application pursuant to Rule 81(2) and Rule 81(4) for redactions to potentially exculpatory evidence.

I. Procedural History

2. On 7 April 2011, the Single Judge rendered the "Decision Setting the Regime for Evidence Disclosure and Other Related Matters" (the "First Decision"), establishing the modalities by which the parties would execute disclosure.¹
3. On 20 April 2011, the Single Judge issued the "Decision on the 'Prosecution's application requesting disclosure after a final resolution of the Government of Kenya's admissibility challenge' and Establishing a Calendar for Disclosure Between the Parties" ("the Second Decision").² In the Second Decision, the Single Judge did not provide specific deadlines for the disclosure of potentially exculpatory evidence, but stated that it expected the Prosecution to "comply with the obligations [...] to disclose any such evidence as soon as practicable, i.e. immediately after having identified any such evidence, and on a continuous basis."³
4. By this Application, the Prosecution proposes redactions to potentially exculpatory evidence. This Application is accompanied by illustrative charts identifying the legal and factual bases for the proposed redactions.
5. The Prosecution proposes redactions to these documents pursuant to Rules 81(2) and 81(4) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ("the Rules"). Following previous practice of the Court, blue highlights identify redactions requested pursuant to Rule 81(2), and red highlights identify redactions requested pursuant to Rule 81(4).

³ ICC-01/09-01/11-62, para. 21.

6. The Prosecution seeks redactions both to the face of documents that will be disclosed and to the metadata accompanying the documents. The Prosecution provides one chart justifying both types of redactions.

II. Request for Confidentiality

7. The Prosecution requests that the unredacted version of this Application and its annexes be received by the Single Judge as “Confidential, ex parte, Prosecutor only” as these documents relate to material that is currently confidential and ex parte or contain information for which redactions are sought, the disclosure of which would defeat the purpose for which the redactions are requested.

III. Submissions

8. According to Article 67(2) of the Rome Statute, the Prosecution shall, as soon as practicable, disclose to the Defence evidence in the its possession or control which the Prosecution believes shows or tends to show the innocence of the accused, or mitigate the guilt of the accused, or which may affect the credibility of Prosecution evidence.
9. The Prosecution must propose conditions under which it discloses potentially exculpatory evidence with a view to its obligations pursuant to Articles 54(1)(b) and 68 to take appropriate measures to protect the safety, physical and psychological well-being, dignity and privacy of victims and witnesses. As the Single Judge noted, “the Prosecutor has the obligation to protect victims and witnesses and, to that effect, he may request that certain information be redacted or rely on summary evidence for the purposes of the confirmation hearing.”⁴ To that end, where necessary to protect the safety of witnesses and victims and members of their families, Rule 81(4) permits the Prosecution to seek the non-disclosure of their identities prior to the commencement of trial.

10. The Prosecution may also request redactions to material being disclosed to protect further and/or ongoing investigations, pursuant to Rule 81(2).
11. The proposed redactions and their factual and legal justifications are set forth in the annexes to this Application.

A. Request for redactions pursuant to Rule 81(4)

12. In its "First Application Pursuant to Rule 81(2) and Rule 81(4) for Redactions to Statements of Witnesses and Related Materials to Be Relied Upon at the Confirmation Hearing" ("First Application"), the Prosecution set forth the legal and factual bases for seeking redactions pursuant to Rule 81(4) and incorporates them by reference.⁵ The Prosecution requests that the Chamber apply the same rules to this Application.
13. The Prosecution notes that it previously anticipated summarizing five documents containing potentially exculpatory evidence.⁶ The Prosecution no longer anticipates summarizing such documents.

B. Requests for redactions pursuant to Rule 81(2)

14. In its First Application, the Prosecution also set forth the legal and factual bases for seeking redactions pursuant to Rule 81(2) and incorporates them by reference.⁷ The Prosecution requests that the Chamber apply the same rules to this Application.

⁶ ICC-01/09-01/11-150-Conf-Exp, para. 13.

⁷ ICC-01/09-01/11-96-Conf-Exp, paras. 38-44.

15. In this case, the Prosecution requests the Chamber to authorize the redaction of the names of two Prosecution investigators who continue to investigate and collect evidence in the field. The Prosecution has previously requested,⁸ and the Chamber has previously authorized,⁹ the redaction of the names of these investigators.

IV. Relief

16. In light of the foregoing, the Prosecution requests that the Chamber approve the proposed redactions.

17. The Prosecution remains mindful of its continuing obligation to disclose to the Defence any additional potentially exculpatory evidence it collects, and, if collected, will disclose such additional evidence to the Defence as soon as practicable.
