A. Filing of Confidential Statement

1. The Legal Representatives for Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10 file the attached statement from Mr. Mohamed Al Ansari Hamid in support of the “Request of Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10 for the Trial Chamber to review the Registry’s ‘Notification of appointment of common legal representatives of victims’ in accordance with Regulation 79(3)” filed on behalf of Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10 on 30 September 2011.¹ The statement from Mr. Mohamed Al Ansari Hamid is attached to this filing as Confidential Annex 1.
2. Mr. Ansari is the case manager and assistant for the Legal Representatives for Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10 and works directly with Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10, as well as with the pending victims a/6000/11, a/6001/11 and a/6002/11 in Sudan. Mr. Ansari’s statement deals with the security concerns of the victims and may assist the Trial Chamber in its determination of the Victims’ Request of 30 September 2011.
3. It is filed after the submission of the Victims’ Request of 30 September 2011 as this was the first opportunity for Mr. Ansari, who travelled from Sudan to The Hague and London at the end of last week, to prepare and sign the statement. The Legal Representatives for Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10 request the Trial Chamber to consider it with the Victims’ Request of 30 September 2011. The statement has been filed within the 30 days permitted by Regulation 79(3), and it provides relevant information about the victims which may assist the Trial Chamber in its review of the Registry’s decision.

¹ Request of Victims a/1646/10 and a/1647/10 for the Trial Chamber to review the Registry’s ‘Notification of appointment of common legal representatives of victims’ in accordance with Regulation 79(3), ICC-02/05-03/09-228, 30 September 2011 (hereinafter “Victims’ Request of 30 September 2011”).
