Ms. Allison Turner, Applicant

In the application before the Presidency by Ms. Allison Turner (hereinafter “applicant”) entitled “Application for Review (Regulation 72(1)(a) of the Regulations of the Court)” dated 10 October 2011 (hereinafter “Application”);¹

Noting the response of the Registrar to the Application, pursuant to regulation 72(3) of the Regulations of the Court, dated 25 October 2011 (hereinafter “Response”);²

Noting the statement of the applicant that the following has been credited towards her relevant experience in criminal proceedings: “two months in 1993 during which I had carriage of a single DUI case (representing 5-10% of my practice)”³ and her similar statement that “[m]y two months of carriage of a criminal law case during my predominantly civil practice was credited as ‘relevant experience’ towards the requisite ten years of criminal proceedings”;⁴

Noting that the Impugned Decision dated 20 September 2011 observes that the applicant has “stated that [her] carriage over the drunk driving case in 1993 was for the duration of two months (June and July). These two months were considered to be relevant experience in criminal proceedings and added to our computation”;⁵

the Registrar to clarify by 9 November 2011 whether, at the time of the Impugned Decision in which the Registrar credited two months’ relevant experience in criminal proceedings to the applicant in respect of the DUI case in June and July 1993, the Registrar was aware that this DUI case constituted 5-10% of the applicant’s practice.
