The Registrar of the International Criminal Court (the “Court”);

NOTING the instruction of Trial Chamber III (the “Chamber”), conveyed by email of 20 January 2014, that the Registry should notify to the Defence and the respective legal representatives of applicants, by 17 February 2014, those applications for reparations that have not previously been transmitted to the Defence;¹

NOTING the instruction of the Chamber, conveyed by email of 11 May 2012, that the relevant legal representative to notify of an application should be the legal representative designated in the application form or, in case no legal representative is designated, the Office of Public Counsel for Victims (the “OPCV”);²

NOTING articles 68(1) and (3) of the Rome Statute, rule 94(2) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (the “Rules”) and regulations 23 bis and 24 bis (2) of the Regulations of the Court;

CONSIDERING that since its last notification of applications for reparations to the Defence on 28 October 2013 under rule 94(2) of the Rules,³ the VPRS has identified 142 complete applications that appear, prima facie, to be linked with the charges confirmed against the accused;

CONSIDERING that 122 of these applicants do not mention any legal representative, 2 applicants mention Mr. Nzala,⁴ 6 applicants mention Ms. Douzima⁵ and 12 applicants mention the late Mr. Zarambaud;⁶

CONSIDERING that the applications for reparations are filed as annexes with the status “Confidential ex parte only available to the Registry and the Legal
