1. The Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) submits the list of relevant decisions, orders and transcripts of the Court, and electronic copies of authorities (internet links) that it anticipates it may use at the appeal hearing.¹ This list is submitted in compliance with the Appeals Chamber’s Order of 8 October 2014.² The list is provisional at this stage—the Prosecution may refer to additional documents from the trial record and authorities during the hearing, depending on the responses of the other parties and participants, and questions from the Chamber.
2. The Prosecution files the attached annex confidentially, pursuant to Regulation 23*bis* of the Regulations of the Court (“RoC”), as it refers to documents which are still confidential.³
