1. On 24 September 2014, Pre-Trial Chamber I (“Chamber”) issued its “Decision on OPCV requests in relation to the Defence disclosure and list of evidence”.¹ The Chamber ordered the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) to file “submissions as to: whether any redactions are needed to sections (ii) and (iii) of the Defence list of evidence prior to its notification to the OPCV; and whether access to all or certain confidential items of evidence listed in sections (ii) and (iii) of the Defence list of evidence can be provided to the OPCV”.²
2. The Prosecution confirms that no redactions are necessary and access can be granted to the OPCV to all confidential items of evidence as found in section (ii) of the Defence list of evidence.
3. The Prosecution submits that in relation to the confidential items of evidence in section (iii), the Chamber should consider applying the same level of confidentiality as ordered in the Gbagbo case.
