I. Introduction and procedural history

1. The Registry submits the present report in accordance with the Decision Closing the Submission of Evidence and Further Directions (“Decision”),<sup>1</sup> issued on 29 April 2016 by the Presiding Judge of Trial Chamber VII (“Chamber”), in which he ordered “the parties and the Registry to review all of their filings in the case record, filing redacted versions and requesting reclassifications whenever possible. The parties and the Registry are directed to certify that their respective filings are as public as possible by 16:00 on 22 July 2016”.<sup>2</sup>

II. Submissions

2. The Registry transmits in the Annex to this report, a table containing all the non-public submissions by the Registry that could be reclassified as public. The submissions which are not listed in the Annex are to retain their current level of classification. The Registry has filed public redacted versions whenever possible.

3. The Registry informs the Chamber that it intends to further review the level of classification of any outstanding submissions on an on-going basis, requesting the reclassification as the case may be or filing public redacted versions when the basis for the confidential classification no longer exists.
