Introduction

1. Following Trial Chamber VI's Decision on 11 December 2017¹ authorising the consultation of the original form of 20 items of evidence by the designated Prosecution expert, the Registry reports on the steps taken relating to the collection of those and two other items from the external expert.²

II. Classification

2. In accordance with regulation 23 bis(1) of the Regulations of the Court, the annex is classified as confidential because it contains personal information of staff members involved in the transmission and collection of the evidence.

III. Applicable Law

3. The Registry submits the present report in accordance with rule 13(1) and rule 15(2) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, regulations 15, 16 and 19(4) of the Regulations of the Registry.

IV. Submission

4. On 15 December 2017, 19 items of evidence that were in the Registry's vault were provided to the Prosecution.³
5. On 15 and 20 December 2017 respectively, the Prosecution transmitted to its expert the 19 items of evidence together with three items, which were in the custody of the Prosecution.⁴

² The 22 items correspond to 20 items cited in footnote 24 of the Prosecution's notification and two additional items provided by the Prosecution to the expert, DRC-D18-0001-5516 and DRC-D18-0001-5147. See "Prosecution notification of the consultation of 20 original items by an external expert", 21 November 2017, ICC-01/04-02/06-2121-red and Annex, Appendix I Chain of Custody Forms respectively.

³ Among the 20 items covered by the Decision, one was in the custody of the Prosecution, DRC-OTP-0102-0038.

6. On 23 February 2018, the 22 items were collected and returned to the International Criminal Court's Registry vault.⁵
7. On 12 April 2018, the three items that were provided by the Prosecution were returned to their custody.⁶
8. The annex to the present report contains a procès verbal that provides detailed information on how the items were transmitted and returned.

Marc Dubuisson, Director, Division of Judicial Services on behalf of Peter Lewis, Registrar
