I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Common Legal Representative of the Victims of the Attacks (the “Legal Representative”) hereby provides notice of the transmission to the Registry of the list of items to be reclassified as public without redactions, and of the disclosure to Trial Chamber VI, the Prosecution, the Defence and CRL1, of the items to be reclassified as public with redactions.

II. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

2. On 8 January 2018, Trial Chamber VI (the “Chamber”) issued its “Further decision on the reclassification of items admitted into evidence”, wherein it directed the Legal Representative (i) to communicate to the Registry a list of items to be reclassified as public without redactions in accordance with paragraph 7 of the decision, and (ii) to prepare, as soon as practicable, public redacted versions of the items to be reclassified as public with redactions and make them available in eCourt in accordance with paragraph 9 of the decision.¹

III. SUBMISSIONS

3. The Legal Representative hereby provides in Annex 1 to the present submissions the list of items to be reclassified as public without redactions.

4. The Legal Representative hereby further provides in Annex 2 to the present submissions the list of the items to be reclassified as public with redactions. These items were made available in eCourt and disclosed to the Chamber, the Prosecution, the Defence and CLR1 on 8 June 2018.

¹ See the “Further decision on the reclassification of items admitted into evidence”, No. ICC-01/04-02/06-2176, 8 January 2018, paras. 7, 9 and p. 7.
