I. Introduction

1. The Registry presents the following submissions, pursuant to regulation 24 bis of the Regulations of the Court ("RoC"), to update Trial Chamber V of the International Criminal Court ("Chamber" and "ICC", respectively) in the case of The Prosecutor vs Alfred Yekatom and Patrice-Edouard Ngaissona ("Defence") on the COVID-19 measures currently in place at the ICC Detention Centre ("Detention Centre" or "DC").

II. Classification

2. In accordance with regulation 23 bis (2) of the RoC, the present report and its annex are classified as confidential, as they refer to confidential detention matters that are currently not public.

III. Submissions

3. As previously reported by the Registry,¹ since 19 March 2020, measures have been in place at the DC in order to protect the health, safety and lives of the detained persons during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, by minimizing contacts to detained persons and thus their risk of exposure to the virus.
4. The Registry hereby wishes to inform the Chamber that on 17 September 2020, pursuant to regulation 96(2) of the RoC, the Presidency approved an extension of certain DC COVID-19 measures until 16 October 2020 (inclusive). This approval was given following a request from the Registrar, and upon the medical advice of the Medical Officer of the DC, according to regulation 155(2) of the Regulations of the Registry ("RoR"). The Registry informed the detained persons and their respective counsels of the extension and new procedures on 18 September 2020.²

5. The Registry would like to further inform the Chamber that regulations 181(4) and 182 of the RoR are no longer temporarily suspended, and a new ICC DC procedure has been put in place regulating the safe import of items into the ICC DC after quarantine. Items such as books, DVDs, CDs, clothes, newspapers, documents, etc. will be delivered to the detained persons following a mandatory quarantine.
6. For the remaining measures, the medical advice remained unchanged from what was presented in the previous filings.
7. The Registry respectfully submits the above for the information of the Chamber, and any further extensions or changes in the measures will be so communicated to the Chamber.
