 Subject: RE: Defence Request concerning 31 January and 1 February 2019

Dear Defence Counsel:

The Defence request of 23 January at 11:19 is granted. The only witness expected to testify next week will be [REDACTED]. On the conclusion of [REDACTED] testimony, the hearings will adjourn until the next block commencing on 18 February 2019.

Best,

Trial Chamber IX

 Subject: Defence Request concerning 31 January and 1 February 2019

Dear Trial Chamber IX,

With the cancellation of the 28th and 29th, I relay the following request to the Chamber on behalf of Co-Counsel.

The Defence's next witness, [REDACTED] is scheduled to testify for approximately two sessions. The following witness, [REDACTED] will testify for three full days. The Defence also notes that VWU informed the Defence this morning that [REDACTED]

As the only witness who could fill the remaining time in the witness block has protective measures [REDACTED] and has [REDACTED], it might cause unwanted problems and raise suspicion [REDACTED]. The Defence respectfully suggests that only [REDACTED] testifies during this block. This will have the witness block end early, but considering all factors, the Defence opines that it is the most logical choice.

The Defence remains at the Chamber's disposal.

Very best,

[REDACTED]

On behalf of Co-Counsel [REDACTED]
