Trial Chamber IX

Dear [REDACTED]

In light of your request, the Chamber directs to the Registry, in the case of dual status individuals, to also notify the relevant Legal Representative of the existence of the correspondence at issue, its author, and the reasons for withholding the correspondence. Should the Legal Representative have concerns regarding the transmission of the relevant correspondence to Mr Ongwen, s/he should follow the procedure set out in paragraph 15 of the Chamber's decision of 12 February 2019 (ICC-02/04-01/15-1445).

Kind regards,
 Trial Chamber IX

Dear All,
 The CLRV takes note of the procedure to be followed for any future correspondence addressed to Mr Ongwen and emanating from a Prosecution's witness indicated in para. 15 of the decision below.

In this regard, the CLRV respectfully seeks a clarification from the Chamber in relation to dual status individuals for whom - she posits - the Registry should also notify the relevant Legal Representative of the existence of any correspondence, its author and the reasons for withholding it. This will allow the relevant Legal Representative to eventually address any concern with the Chamber when discharging his or her mandate of legal representation of the dual status individual concerned.

Kind regards,
 [REDACTED]
