Subject: RE: Prosecution Request for Clarification concerning Timeline for Rebuttal Evidence

[ICC] RESTRICTED

Dear Counsel,

The Chamber will set a timeline for the hearing of any evidence in rebuttal and/or non-evidentiary views and concerns of participating victims, if appropriate, once it is seized of requests for leave to present such evidence, if any.

Kind regards, TC V

Asunto: Clarification on further conduct of the proceedings - rebuttal evidence

Dear Trial Chamber V,

In light of the timelines set out in the recently Amended Directions on the Conduct of the Proceedings (ICC-01/14-01/18-2600, p.7), the Prosecution seeks clarification as to when the Chamber may hear evidence in rebuttal or the non-evidentiary views and concerns of participating victims, should it grant a request for leave to present such evidence timely submitted within five days of the testimony of the last Defence witness per its 7 February 2024 email Decision on the CLR1's request for guidance (ICC-01/14-01/18-2491-Anx4-Red, p.2) and the Initial Directions on the Conduct of the Proceedings (ICC-01/14-01/18-631, para. 16).

Thank you for your consideration.

Kind regards,
 On behalf of OTP Trial Team
