Subject: Clarification regarding Time Limits during the Judicial Recess

[ICC] RESTRICTED

Dear Counsel,
Dear all,

The Single Judge takes note of the email below and clarifies that time limits are not suspended during the present judicial recess. Participants may nonetheless seek limited extensions of time if necessary, in accordance with Regulation 35 of the Regulations of the Court.

Kind regards,
TC V

[ICC] RESTRICTED

Dear Trial Chamber V,

There has been some uncertainty regarding the applicable deadlines in respect of requests and responses filed during the Court recess, for which we seek clarification from the Chamber.

Although these time limits have been normally suspended pursuant to article 64(2) and Regulation 19*bis* (2) of the Regulations of the Court, I have not seen a communication to that effect from the Chamber.

I would appreciate it if you could please let me know at your earliest convenience whether the customary suspensions are in place, subject to the Chamber's case-by-case determinations on matters of urgency.

Thanks very much for your consideration.

Kind regards,

Kweku Vanderpuye
