1. On the 13th December 2024 Trial Chamber X issued its 'Order for Submissions on Reparations', invited any interested persons or organisations to make a submission on the follow issues in the Al Hassan case:
 - a. estimated total number of direct victims of the crime of persecution and the indirect victims of all crimes for which Mr Al Hassan was convicted;
 - b. specification of the types and extent of the harm suffered by the victims of the crimes for which Mr Al Hassan was convicted, citing to specific evidence;
 - c. whether recourse to factual presumptions should be considered;
 - d. types and modalities of reparations appropriate to address the harm suffered by the victims of the crimes for which Mr Al Hassan was convicted;
 - e. concrete estimates as to the costs to repair the harms suffered by the victims in light of the proposed modalities for repairing them. The TFV should clearly indicate in its submission the total amount within its cost estimate that would be dedicated to administrative costs;
 - f. any legal and factual issues relevant to the identification of eligible victims;
 - g. any victims or groups of victims who may require prioritisation in the reparations process; and
 - h. information as to whether the victims of the crimes for which Mr Al Hassan was convicted have received any form of compensation or reparations for the harm suffered as a result of these crimes.
2. Queen's University Belfast's Human Rights Centre (HRC) requests leave to file a joint submission on these reparationsrelated issues identified by the Chamber.
3. The HRC is part of a publicly funded university in Northern Ireland, which specialises in researching and teaching human rights, international criminal justice and transitional justice. The HRC has over thirty years of experience in researching and providing expert testimony and consultation on reparations to a number of governments, regional courts, and civil society organizations, including the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia, the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, the United Nations and in South Sudan, Northern Ireland,

Colombia, Peru, Guatemala, Iraq, Nepal and Uganda. The HRC had previously been granted standing to submit reparations in the Katanga, al-Mahdi and Bemba cases.

4. The HRC submission will draw upon its members experience in numerous jurisdictions in effectively implementing reparations.
