Subject: Order setting the schedule for the hearing pursuant to Article 76

Dear all,

The Presiding Judge recalls that the Chamber scheduled a hearing pursuant to Article 76 of the Statute from 8 to 10 January 2025 and indicated that a precise schedule would be rendered in due course and after the deadline for the requests for submission of additional evidence (Decision on the Sentencing Procedure and Amended Directions on the Conduct of the Proceedings, ICC-01/14-01/18-2600, para. 10).

In light of the Decision on the Requests to Present Additional Evidence for Potential Sentencing (ICC-01/14-01/18-2733-Conf) and the participants' written submissions on potential sentencing, the Presiding Judge considers it sufficient to afford 3 hours to the Prosecution, 2 hours to each Defence team, and 1.5 hours to the Common Legal Representatives of Victims to be divided between them as they see fit. Accordingly, he expects that the hearing can be concluded on 9 January 2025.

The Chamber will hear the Prosecution's submissions first, followed by the CLRV and the Defence. The Defence and the CLRV may decide on the order of their respective submissions amongst themselves and inform the Chamber thereof one week in advance of the hearing.

Should the participants intend to use any material in the course of their submissions, they are instructed to indicate this material one week in advance of the hearing. Any objections thereto shall be made within two days.

Ideally, all submissions shall be presented entirely in public session.

Kind regards, TC V
