- confirmed she was given an opportunity to read the prior recorded testimony, together with the associated materials, in a language that she understands and which she confirmed was done;
- confirmed that it is indeed her prior recorded testimony;
and
- subsequently declared that the contents of her prior recorded testimony and associated materials are true and correct to the best of her knowledge and belief.

I certify that the witness assures that she makes the declaration voluntarily and without undue influence.

I furthermore certify that the witness was provided with a copy of article 70 of the Rome Statute and that she was informed in a language that he understands that if the contents of the prior recorded testimony and associated materials are not true, s he may be subject to proceedings for having given false testimony before the Court.

The declaration was made in the presence of: [REDACTED]

Additional remarks:

The certification of the prior recorded testimony was conducted with the assistance of a Court Interpreter from the Registry Language Services Section.

Prior to the start of the certification, Associate Counsel indicated that the witness was illiterate. In addition to reading out the title page of the prior recorded testimony to the witness, the ERNs and indication of signature - where appended to the prior recorded testimony and associated documents - were also read out to the witness.
