

ANNEX 2

Confidential

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. THE SUSPECT: KHALED MOHAMED ALI EL HISHRI.....	3
II. THE CHARGES.....	6
A. CONTEXTUAL ELEMENTS	7
(1) Contextual elements of crimes against humanity (article 7)	7
(2) Contextual elements of war crimes (article 8)	19
B. ALLEGED CRIMES	35
1) Torture and cruel treatment, imprisonment, outrages upon personal dignity, and other inhumane acts (counts 1-6)	36
(2) Rape and sexual violence (counts 7-10)	57
(3) Murder and attempted murder (counts 11-12)	62
(4) Enslavement (count 13)	66
(5) Persecution (counts 14-17)	92
C. INDIVIDUAL CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY	104
(1) Central allegations concerning EL HISHRI's personal conduct	105
i. EL HISHRI exercised general authority and influence throughout Mitiga Prison	105
ii. EL HISHRI exercised direct control over the Women's Section of Mitiga Prison	117
iii. EL HISHRI directly perpetrated acts amounting to the commission of crimes	122
(2) Charged forms of criminal responsibility	125
i. Direct perpetration of charged crimes: article 25(3)(a)	124
ii. Indirect perpetration of charged crimes: article 25(3)(a)	129
iii. Joint perpetration of charged crimes, directly and/or indirectly: article 25(3)(a)	133
a. The use of Mitiga Prison as a tool to serve the interests or views of SDF/RADA and its members	135
b. The systematic nature of the alleged crimes at Mitiga Prison, and prolonged period of commission	137
c. The co-perpetrators' own conduct participating in the crimes at Mitiga Prison	138
d. The co-perpetrators' consciousness of guilt is demonstrated by the measures taken to conceal the crimes at Mitiga Prison	139
iv. Ordering and/or inducing the commission of the charged crimes: article 25(3)(b)	147
v. Aiding, abetting, or otherwise assisting the commission of the charged crimes: article 25(3)(c)	149
vi. Contributing to the charged crimes committed by a group acting with a common purpose: article 25(3)(d)	151
III. CONCLUSION	152