Dear Counsel,
Dear colleagues,

Having considered the schedule and agenda set for the upcoming status conference, the Chamber does not anticipate that questions regarding the German case file will arise during Wednesday's hearing. The Chamber accordingly does not consider attendance by [REDACTED] to be necessary for the conduct of the status conference. The Chamber further notes that discussion of confidential information may require holding part of the status conference in private session. Unless the Defence confirms that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] has been appointed in any capacity, ad hoc or otherwise, to assist the Defence for the purpose of the current proceedings before the Chamber (with completion of the necessary clearance and vetting), the below request is dismissed.

Kind regards,
PTC I

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope you are well.

Please we ask the honourable panel to allow [REDACTED] (former defence counsel for Mr El Hishri in Germany, who is representing him before German courts in extradition proceedings) to be present, accompanying the defence, in the courtroom during the Status Conference on 28 January 2026, just in case something arises related to Mr. El-Hishri's German case file. He will only take the floor should the Chamber have any questions related to the German case file.

Thank you very much!

Kind regards,
