[misdemeanours]

21 December 2010

I, Mr René Cros, Vice-President in charge of investigations at the Tribunal de Grande Instance of Paris, sitting in camera,

Noting the proceedings against Mr Callixte Mbarushimana, born on 24 July 1963 in Ndusu, Rwanda,
Whose stated place of residence is 247, rue de Crimée, 75019 Paris, France, detained for other reasons at La Santé Prison,

Under judicial examination for:

Crimes against humanity (genocide, widespread and systematic summary executions, abduction of persons followed by their disappearance, torture or inhuman acts, committed for political, philosophical or racial reasons and organised following an agreed plan against a civilian population group) and complicity in these crimes,

Offences provided for in and punishable under articles 221(1), 212(1), 213(1) to 213(5), 132(23), 121(6) and 121(7) of the Criminal Code;

Noting articles 137 et seq. of the Code of Criminal Procedure;

Noting the Public Prosecutor's submissions;

Considering that the person under judicial examination is liable for a prison term at the least; that, for investigation imperatives and as a security measure, it is necessary to place the person under judicial supervision;

FOR THESE REASONS:

PLACE UNDER JUDICIAL SUPERVISION the person under judicial examination, who will be required to submit to the following restrictions:

- Art. 138(1) - Not to leave the following territorial boundaries without prior authorisation: territory of mainland France;
- Art. 138(4) - To notify the investigating judge of any travel beyond the following boundaries: Île-de-France Region;
- Art. 138(5) - To appear once a month, starting from the first Monday after discharge from prison, at the AAPé [Association d'Aide Pénale], located at the Tribunal de Grande Instance, bd du Palais, 75001, Paris, France;
- Art. 138(7) - To hand over the following identity documents to the greffe des appels correctionnels [misdemeanour appeals registry] - stairway H - door 161 - together with two ID photos, in exchange for a receipt which acts as a proof of identity:
 - passport;
- Art. 138(9) - To abstain from seeing, meeting or contacting by any means the following persons: all the witnesses who have given testimony in the case.

Vice-President in charge of investigations

[stamped and signed]

Mr René Cros

I HAVE BEEN INFORMED that, under article 141(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, any wilful breach by me of the aforementioned obligations may result in my being remanded in custody.
