

Annexe 1 (publique)

Extrait de la décision de la Cour de district de
La Haye du 28 décembre 2011
Affaire M. Floribert Ndjabu
Ngabu et crts c/ L'Etat
néerlandais
N° AWB 11/25891, AWB
11/25904,
AWB 11/25907,
AWB 11/36660

Judgment

THE HAGUE DISTRICT COURT

Administrative Law Sector

Sitting in Amsterdam

case numbers: AWB 11/25891, AWB 11/25904, AWB 11/25907, AWB 11/36660,

AWB 11/36662, AWB 11/36664, AWB 11/39010, AWB 11/39011 and AWB 11/39012

(...)

9.9. The District Court concludes that there is no basis either in national law or in the legislation relating to the International Criminal Court for the view that Dutch immigration law is not applicable to the processing and assessment of the claimants' asylum applications. Nor has the defendant been able to cite any international provisions that would warrant such a view.

(...)

Decision

The District Court,

- in the cases registered under numbers AWB 11/25891, 11/25904, 11/25907, 11/36660, 11/36662 and 11/36664 declares the applications for review to be inadmissible;
- in the cases registered under numbers AWB 11/39010, 11/39011 and 11/39012 declares the applications for review to be well-founded;
- directs the defendant to give decisions on the asylum applications, having regard to this judgment, by 28 June 2012 at the latest;

This judgment was given by H.B. van Gijn, presiding judge, and A.J. Dondorp and A.J. van Putten, judges, in the presence of L. Fernández Ferreiro, clerk of the court. The decision was delivered in open court on 28 December 2011.