Explanatory note to the corrigendum to the “Decision on the ‘Defence request for an order of disclosure’”

1. On 1 August 2013, the Chamber issued the “Decision on the ‘Defence request for an order of disclosure’”.
2. It came to the attention of the Chamber that in the printout of the decision (both in the confidential and in the public redacted version), the last two lines of page 12 went missing, and the last two lines of page 13 also appear as the first two lines of page 14.
3. This error has been corrected in both the confidential and the public redacted version of the decision (ICC-01/11-01/11-392-Conf and ICC-01/11-01/11-392-Red, respectively). In particular:
 - (i) the words “The issue sub judice is limited to determining whether a Chamber’s order to the Prosecutor is warranted in order for the Defence to receive disclosure of” are reinserted at the bottom of page 12; and
 - (ii) one of the repeated instance in which the words “indeed exist in the Court’s legal framework) cannot be made contingent upon Libya’s failure to comply with the Court’s request for arrest and surrender” appear is removed.
