Tableau des décisions de la Chambre préliminaire puis de la Chambre d'instance portant sur le réexamen des conditions de détention et sur l'examen de la demande subsidiaire pendante.

Décision	Chambre	Attendus pertinents
Première décision de réexamen du 12 novembre 2012	Chambre préliminaire	«the Single Judge is of the view that, in order to exercise the discretion to consider conditional release "judiciously and with full cognizance of the fact that a person's personal liberty is at stake", it is necessary to first obtain the abovementioned information from the Registry. Thereafter, the Single Judge will determine whether conditional release should be considered, under which conditions and where they could be enforced » ¹
Deuxième décision de réexamen du 12 mars 2013	Chambre préliminaire	« Therefore, Single Judge is of the view that no conditions short of detention at the Court's detention facilities can mitigate these risks. Conditional released cannot be granted. 45. Accordingly, the Single Judge considers it unnecessary to convey a hearing to seek additional information from Uganda with regard to its offer to host Mr Gbagbo, if released. 46. Finally, the Single Judge stresses that this determination is, however, without prejudice to the possibility of considering this or another offer in the future, should the circumstances change. » ²

Troisième réexamen de la détention du le 11 juillet 2013	Chambre préliminaire	«the Chamber, aware of the ongoing concerns in relation to the state of health of Mr Gbagbo, and the passage of time, will explore the possibility for conditional release»³ « the Chamber remains open to considering, and will itself seek to identify, potential arrangements for conditional release which would sufficiently mitigate the identified risks»⁴
Quatrième décision de réexamen de la détention du 11 novembre 2013	Chambre préliminaire	«the Chamber notes the progress made by the Registry in consultation with the Defence aimed at determining the appropriate ways to address the persisting concerns related to Mr Gbagbo's health and considers it appropriate to finalise this exploratory process so that adequate treatment, if any, may be provided without delay as may be recommended by the doctors. For this purpose, the Chamber considers it appropriate to order the Registry and the Defence to submit by 2 December 2013, preferably jointly, a report on the progress achieved in relation to the matter at issue. Once the process is completed, the Chamber will assess the possibility of granting conditional release and seek, if appropriate, the views of the Prosecutor, the Defence, any relevant State and the victims that have communicated with the Court in relation to this case, in accordance with rule 119(3) of the Rules»⁵
Cinquième décision sur le réexamen du 12 mars 2014	Chambre préliminaire	«The Chamber notes that the relevant process for determining Mr Gbagbo's health-related needs is currently being conducted by the Registry in consultation with the Defence. The Chamber has been provided with information on the progress of this process by way of three reports in the record of the case. The last of these reports, filed on 26 February 2014, indicated that at present the process is not yet complete. 41. The Chamber is therefore not in a position to assess the possibility of conditional release. Once the process is completed, the Chamber will assess the possibility of granting conditional release and seek, if appropriate, the views of the Prosecutor, the Defence, any relevant State, and the victims that have communicated with the Court in relation to this case, in accordance with rule 119(3) of the Rules»⁶.

Sixième décision sur le réexamen du 11 juillet 2014	Chambre préliminaire	«the Single Judge notes that the relevant process for determining Mr Gbagbo's health-related needs is currently being conducted by the Registry in consultation with the Defence. The Chamber has been provided with information on the progress of this process by way of five reports in the record of the case. The information currently available suggests that at present the process is not yet complete. 48. The Single Judge is therefore not in a position to assess the possibility of conditional release. Once the process is completed, the Single Judge will assess the possibility of granting conditional release and seek, if appropriate, the views of the Prosecutor, the Defence, any relevant State, and the victims that have communicated with the Court in relation to this case, in accordance with rule 119(3) of the Rules»⁷.
Septième décision sur le réexamen de la détention du 11 novembre 2014	Chambre de première instance	«accordingly, the Chamber is not yet in a position to assess the possibility of conditional release. It therefore

Huitième décision sur le réexamen du 11 mars 2015	Chambre de première instance	«the Chamber notes that the Defence submissions briefly discussed the conditional release of Mr Gbagbo. In this regard, the Chamber recalls that it is not yet in a position to assess the possibility of conditional release and informs the parties and participants that a decision on this topic is deferred to a later date » ⁹
Ordonnance du 11 mai 2015	Chambre de première instance	«on 11 November 2014 ⁹ and 11 March 2015, ¹⁰ the Chamber reviewed Mr Gbagbo's detention and decided that he shall continue to be detained. On both occasions, the Chamber also decided to defer its decision on the conditional release of Mr Gbagbo on the basis that it was 'not yet in a position to assess the possibility of conditional release'» ¹⁰ «the parties and participants will accordingly be given an opportunity to make any observations on Mr Gbagbo's continued detention or release (with or without conditions), including the existence of any changed circumstances. The Ninth Joint Report will be considered in this context » ¹¹
