

Annex B

Case No.	ID	Complete	Crimes	Harm	Chamber's Analysis
a/1006/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-85-Conf-Exp-Ann27	A passport is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Police Station - District 21, 16 December 2010 Other inhumane acts Police Station - District 21, 16 December 2011	Material (loss of property) Physical (injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports being arrested during the demonstration at RTI headquarters. The applicant also reports that his money was taken and the applicant was beaten. The applicant further reports to have seen and other consequences from the injury. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Jordan Decision , para. 58), namely the attacks relating to the demonstrations at the RTI headquarters between 16 and 19 December 2010.
a/20102/13 ICC-02/11-02/11-85-Conf-Exp-Ann337	A national identity card is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Roundabout Barco 3 March 2011 Other inhumane acts Roundabout Barco 3 March 2011	Psychological (trauma) Material (loss of property) Physical (injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, during the women's demonstration in Abobo, the applicant was thrown to the ground and crushed. The applicant further reports that the incident left the applicant with injuries that continue to date. The applicant also reports that the applicant's commercial establishment was pillaged by the same forces; that the applicant is still traumatised because of the events and has lost her livelihood because of these incidents. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Jordan Decision , para. 58), namely the attacks on a women's demonstration in Abobo on 3 March 2011.
a/10111/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Ann2	A national identity card is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Abobo, Andokor: 17 December 2010 Other inhumane acts Abobo, Andokor: 17 December 2013	Physical (injury) Material (loss of property)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 17 December 2010 in Abobo the applicant was beaten and had goods confiscated. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Jordan Decision , para. 58), namely the attacks relating to the demonstrations at the RTI headquarters between 16 and 19 December 2010.
a/10118/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Ann8	A national identity card is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Crossroads Mauntanien, Abobo: 18 December 2010 Other inhumane acts Crossroads Mauntanien, Abobo: 18 December 2010	Psychological (trauma) Physical (injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 18 December 2010 in the Abobo, the applicant was beaten, stabbed and suffered several injuries that persist to date and have left the applicant traumatised. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Jordan Decision , para. 58), namely the attacks relating to the demonstrations at the RTI headquarters between 16 and 19 December 2010.
a/10218/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Ann8	A birth certificate is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Yopougon: 16 December 2010 Other inhumane acts Yopougon: 16 December 2010	Physical (bodily injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 16 December 2010, at a roadblock in Yopougon, the applicant was threatened and was later beaten until the applicant fell on the ground and started bleeding. As a consequence, the applicant reports to have suffered physical harm. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Jordan Decision , para. 58), namely the attacks relating to the demonstrations at the RTI headquarters between 16 and 19 December 2010.

No.	ID	Complexity	Crimes	Harm	Chamber's Analysis
n/10227/14	A national identity card is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Cocody : 16 December 2010 Other inhumane acts Cocody : 16 December 2010	Material (loss of property) Physical (injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 16 December 2010, in Cocody, while the applicant was participating at the RTI demonstration, the applicant came across a roadblock. The applicant further reports that, at this roadblock, a grenade was thrown on the applicant and other people passing by. The applicant also reports that the applicant's house was destroyed and pillaged and that, as a result, the applicant is unable to work and is facing financial difficulties.
ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Esp-Annex8	A consular identity card, a national identity card and a birth certificate are provided.	Yes Victim is acting on behalf of her late husband who was killed.	Persecution Doukouré : 12 April 2011 Murder Doukouré, Yopougon : 12 April 2011	Material (loss of property) Psychological (death of the spouse)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, armed forces broke into his house and killed the applicant's spouse. The applicant further reports that the death of the spouse led to a difficult financial situation, as the applicant was left alone to take care of the couple's children. Additionally, property was stolen from their house. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant and the spouse suffered/ are suffering from personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Joint Decision, para. 53), namely the attacks on Yopougon on or about 12 April 2011.
n/10109/14	A birth certificate is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Sexual violence Doukouré : 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts Doukouré : 12 April 2011	Material (inability to work, loss of property) Physical (injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant was beaten and thereafter hospitalized. The applicant further reports that forces pillaged the applicant's home and the applicant is now unable to work. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Joint Decision, para. 53), namely the attacks on Yopougon on or about 12 April 2011.
n/10200/14	A national identity card, a consular identity card and a birth certificate are provided.	Yes Victim is acting on behalf of her late husband who was killed.	Persecution Doukouré : 12 April 2011 Murder Doukouré : 12 April 2011	Material (loss of property, death of family member) Psychological (death of the spouse)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant's home was pillaged and the applicant's spouse was killed. The applicant also reports that, as a result of these events, the applicant and family were left in a miserable state, as the house was pillaged and it was the deceased spouse who provided for the family. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant and spouse suffered/ are suffering from personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see Joint Decision, para. 53), namely the attacks on Yopougon on or about 12 April 2011.

No.	ID	Complexity	Crimes	Harm	Chamber's Analysis
8/10202/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Annex2	A national identity card is provided	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Doudou, Yopougon: 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts Doudou, Yopougon: 12 April 2011	Psychological (trauma) Physical (injury) Material (loss of property)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant's home was attacked and armed forces threw stones at the applicant. The applicant also reports that to have been physically, materially and morally affected by these events. The applicant reports to still being scared, unable to go back to normal activities and had some money stolen during the incident.
8/10209/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Annex3	A national identity card is provided	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Carrefour 18ème arrondissement and Doudou: 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts Carrefour 18ème arrondissement and Doudou: 12 April 2011	Material (loss of property) Physical (injury)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant was beaten and mugged. The applicant's house was later pillaged. The applicant also reports that, as a result of these incidents, the applicant still has a lasting injury and has lost many personal belongings, including money.
8/10210/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Annex4	A certificate of identity is provided	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution At the border of Doudou, Yopougon: 12 April 2011 Applicant's home, Doudou, Yopougon: 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts At the border of Doudou, Yopougon: 12 April 2011 Applicant's home, Doudou, Yopougon: 12 April 2011	Physical (injury) Material (loss of property)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant's home was attacked and other people inside were killed. The applicant escaped and was later arrested, beaten up and tortured. The applicant lost some property, had to leave the neighbourhood and rebuild everything.
4/10211/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-104-Conf-Exp-Annex5	A certificate of identity is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persecution Carrefour 18ème arrondissement, Yopougon: 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts Carrefour 18ème arrondissement, Yopougon: 12 April 2011	Physical (injury) Material (loss of property, inability to work)	In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that came within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr. Gbagbo and against Mr. Blé Goudé (see, Jointer Decision, para. 53), namely the attacks on Yopougon on or about 12 April 2011.

No.	ID	Complée	Crimes	Harm	Chamber's Analysis
W/02/12/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-J04-CONF-EXP- AN092	A national identity card is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persécution Doutouire, Yopougon, 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts Doutouire, Yopougon, 12 April 2011	Psychological (Trauma) Physical (injury) Material (loss of property and travel to work)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant's house was attacked, friends were killed. When the applicant tried to escape, he was beaten and the house pillaged. The applicant also reports that the applicant is still traumatised by the events and that, because the applicant is the family's provider, they are facing difficulties and cannot live as before. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr Gbagbo and against Mr Blé Goudé (see Joint Decision , para. 53), namely the attacks on Yopougon on or about 12 April 2011.
W/02/12/14 ICC-02/11-02/11-J04-CONF-EXP- AN011	A national identity card is provided.	Yes Victim is acting on own behalf	Persécution Doutouire, 12 April 2011 Other inhumane acts Doutouire, 12 April 2011	Psychological (Trauma) Physical (injury) Material (loss of property)	As regards the harm allegedly suffered and the incidents that led to such harm, the applicant reports that, on 12 April 2011, the applicant's home was attacked and pillaged. The applicant further reports to have been beaten up and injured. The applicant also reports that, as a result of the events, applicant is traumatised and has lost savings. In light of the foregoing, the Chamber considers that the applicant has suffered personal harm as a result of events that come within the parameters of the charges confirmed against Mr Gbagbo and against Mr Blé Goudé (see Joint Decision , para. 53), namely the attacks on Yopougon on or about 12 April 2011.