Dear parties,
Dear participants,

Going forward, and pursuant to Rule 140 of the Rules, the participants must give an advance indication of all witnesses who it believes may have Rule 74 issues. This information is purely for informational purposes, and the calling participant still bears the responsibility of liaising with the Registry when such issues arise (see generally ICC-02/04-01/15-504-Anx1).

The information indicated is to be provided forthwith by the Prosecution as an additional column in its witness list. This column is then to be updated as needed in the monthly witness list updates specified in paragraph 16 of decision ICC-02/04-01/15-497. Should the other party or participants decide to call witnesses, their witness lists must also reflect this information.

Kind regards,

On behalf of Trial Chamber IX
