Dear Counsel and Registry:

The Chamber has taken note of the parties' email exchanges on T-46 (Email from the Defence, 4 April 2017 at 15:25, in response to Email from the Prosecution, 28 March 2017 at 12:42) and T-48 (Email from the Defence, 5 April 2017 at 10:24, in response to Email from the Prosecution, 29 March 2017 at 15:00).

In relation to T-46, the parties agree that no redactions to this transcript are necessary. Pursuant to Regulation 23 bis of the Regulations of the Court, the Registry is directed to reclassify ICC-02/04-01/15-T-46-Conf-FRA and ENG as 'public'.

In relation to T-48, the Defence objects to the application of redactions at pages 46-47. This passage concerns an exchange about P-205 being the subject of disciplinary action. Noting that the witness subsequently described the punishments he was given in passages which neither party considers as requiring redactions, it is decided that the passage in question shall not be redacted.

Best,

Trial Chamber IX
