

PUBLIC ANNEX B

| Assessment of injuries to persons                                          |                   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| Description                                                                       | Assessment |
| Physical harm                                                                     |                   |
| Striking and wounding                                                                    | USD 200           |
| Sexual harm                                                                              | USD 2,500-10 000  |
| Psychological harm connected to physical injury                                          | USD 100           |
| Psychological harm connected to the death of relatives                            |                   |
| Father, mother, spouse or child                                                          | USD 10 000        |
| Sibling                                                                                  | 6 000             |
| Other deceased relatives (subject to proof of a particularly close tie)                  | USD 4,000         |
| Other psychological harm                                                          |                   |
| Psychological harm connected to the experience of the attack on Bogoro                   | USD 800           |
| Post-traumatic stress                                                                    | USD 600           |
| Psychological harm connected to forced departure / uprooting / family separation         | USD 400           |
| Educational harm                                                                         | USD 100           |
| Psychological harm connected to loss of opportunity / standard of living / social status | USD 100           |