Explanatory Note to Corrected version of “Request for leave to Submit Amicus Curiae Observations Pursuant to Rule 103 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (ICC-02/17-46)”

1. On 14 June 2019, FIDH, Armanshahr/OPEN/ASIA and the Afghanistan TJCG filed their “Request for Leave to Submit Amicus Curiae Observations Pursuant to Rule 103 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence” (ICC-02/17-46). The following amendments are made to correct typographical errors in this document:
 - Paragraph 32, line 4: inclusion of “and assisted in the facilitation of thousands of victim representations to the VPRS,” such that it reads: “Both organisations have offered their knowledge of the local context to the Court in various capacities and have assisted in the facilitation of victim representations to the VPRS.”
 - Paragraph 42, line 4: “Women” is changed to “women”. Line 8, deletion of the words “for the”, inclusion of the word “by”.
 - Paragraph 54, line 11, deletion of repeated word “including”.
 - Paragraph 55, line 1, deletion of word “since”, inclusion of word “In”.
