Dear Defence,

The Chamber takes note of the request by the Defence and the response by the Prosecution.

The Chamber does not object to the delegation visiting the accused on Friday, at the indicated time. However, there is no reason why the visit should be un-monitored. The normal rules set out by the statutory framework regarding visits in the Detention Centre will apply.

As expressed on previous occasions, and as has been indicated by the Defence, the additional necessary requests and arrangements with the ICC Detention Centre still need to be made.

Kind regards,
 Trial Chamber IX

Subject: Request for Visitors to Mr Ongwen
 Dear Trial Chamber IX and Prosecution,

The Defence respectfully requests that following people, who are part of the delegation this week visiting from Uganda, be allowed to visit Mr Ongwen at the ICC-DC on Friday, 13 March 2020 from 15h45 to 16h45:

The Defence requests that the visit be un-monitored too.

Finally, the Defence understands that if the persons are allowed to visit, it must make the necessary arrangements and procedures with the ICC-DC.

Very best,
