Subject: In-court protection measures for witness DAR-P-0712

Dear colleagues,
Dear counsels,

Please find below the in-court protection measures report in relation to DAR-P-0712.

Background

The witness is a [REDACTED] Sudanese male of Fur ethnicity. He and his family currently [REDACTED].

Witness's concern

The VWU interviewed the witness on [REDACTED], for the purpose of an in-court protective measures assessment. He stated that he did not inform anyone about his cooperation with the Court.

The witness did not express any security concerns for himself, and his immediate family residing with him [REDACTED]. However, he said that [REDACTED] to reside [REDACTED]; and he is fearful that they may be harmed if his identity is revealed during his testimony before the Court.

The VWU explained to the witness the various procedural protective measures that the Court may implement to mitigate risks that may emanate from his testimony before it; he requested that the VWU request the Court to consider granting him procedural protective measures to suppress his identity.

Protection Analysis

The witness and his immediate family are currently residing [REDACTED], which is outside the identified area of risk. According to the witness, [REDACTED], [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. Therefore, the VWU considers it prudent that the witness testifies with procedural protective measures to ensure that his identity is not publicized during his testimony before the Court.

Recommendations

The VWU recommends that the Court consider granting the witness the following in-court protective measures: image and voice distortion, use of pseudonyms, use of closed and/or private session when needed, and redaction of any identifying information from the Court's records before dissemination to the public.

Kind regards,
